'the scary monster'

The dinosaur had sharp teeth.

You can add a prepositional phrase in order to give additional detail to your expanded noun phrase.

'an enormous, menacing monster in the mouth of a dark cave'

Tense

Verbs are words which express actions and we must look at these to determine the tense of the sentence.

Past simple – the action took place in the past and is now finished.

I walked to my friend's house.

Past progressive – the action took place in the past over a period of time.

I was walking to my friend's house.

Past perfect – the action was completed by a particular point in the past.

I had walked to my friend's house.

Present simple - the action takes place regularly.

I walk to my friend's house.

Present progressive – the action is taking place now.

I am walking to my friend's house.

Present perfect – the action is now completed.

I have walked to my friend's house.

The future tense also exists and explains that events have not happened yet but will happen soon or in the future.

Co-ordinating conjunctions

A co-ordinating conjunction joins two clauses of equal value or importance in a sentence. There are many co-ordinating conjunctions, but some of the main ones can be remembered using the acronym FANBOYS.
