

Adverbs add to the verb.

An adverb usually tells us how a verb takes place.

1) Write out these sentences underlining the adverb.

- The red car travelled speedily along the narrow road.
- Julie walked slowly to school along the path.
- The player shot quickly into the empty goal.
- The crowd laughed loudly at the comic's jokes.
- The princess cried quietly when she was lost.
- "Will you be quiet!" shouted the teacher angrily.
- The homework was finished quickly by the wise pupil.
- Because it was raining heavily, they had to stay in.

Adverbs add to the verb.

Sometimes adverbs tell us where or how a verb takes place

I will be coming tomorrow.

When

Please put the cars there.

Where

2) Write out these sentences underlining the adverb.

- "Can you put your homework here?" asked the teacher.
- The homework must be handed in by tomorrow.
- You might be able to play out later if you are lucky.