

Year 6 Reading Coverage

Key Reading Skills

Suggested Question Stems

Vocabulary

- evaluate how the authors' use of language impacts upon the reader
- find examples of figurative language and how this impacts the reader and contributes to meaning or mood.
- discuss how presentation and structure contribute to meaning.
- explore the meaning of words in context by 'reading around the word' and independently explore its meaning in the broader context of a section or paragraph.

- What does this word/phrase/sentence tell you about the character/setting/mood?
- By writing..., what effect has the author created? Do you think they intended to?
- Can you find examples of simile, metaphor, hyperbole or personification in the text?
- Why has the text been organised in this way? Would you have done it differently?
- What other words/phrases could the author have used here? Why? How has the author made you/this character feel by writing...? Why?

Inference

- drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence.
- discuss how characters change and develop through texts by drawing inferences based on indirect clues.
- make inferences about events, feelings, states backing these up with evidence.
- infer characters' feelings, thoughts and motives, giving more than one piece of evidence to support each point made. They can draw evidence from different places across the text

- What do you think... means? Why do you think that? Could it be anything else?
- I think....; do you agree? Why/why not?
- Why do you think the author decided to...?
- Can you explain why...?
- What do these words mean and why do you think that the author chose them?
- How do other people's descriptions of ...show that...?
- Where else in the text can we find the answer to this question?

Prediction

- predicting what might happen from details stated and implied
- support predictions by using relevant evidence from the text
- confirm and modify predictions in light of new information.

- Can you think of another story with a similar theme? How do their plots differ?
- Which stories have openings like this? Do you think that this story will develop the same way?
- Why did the author choose this setting? Will that influence the story?

Explaining

- provide increasingly reasoned justification for my views
- recommend books for peers in detail
- give reasons for authorial choices
- begin to challenge points of view
- begin to distinguish between fact and opinion

- What is similar/different about two characters? Did the author intend that?
- Explain why... did that.
- Describe different characters' reactions to the same event.
- Does this story have a moral?
- Which is better and why?
