

SIX TO READ...

...if you like emotional books

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

A heart-warming story of friendship between Amanda and her imaginary friend, Rudger. When the mysterious Mr Bunting arrives at Amanda's house searching for Rudger, everything changes...

Ira and Zac are looked-after children, living in an orphanage; they hope to be adopted. A ghost called Glenda gives them hope...

Auggie looks different to everybody else, and is starting school for the first time. The story is written from lots of perspectives, helping Auggie to overcome his difficulties.

SIX TO READ...

...if you like emotional books

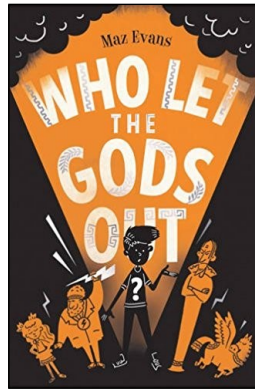

Jewel's younger brother John (Bird) died young, and her grandfather blames himself. When she finds a mysterious boy in her tree, Jewel learns who to trust...

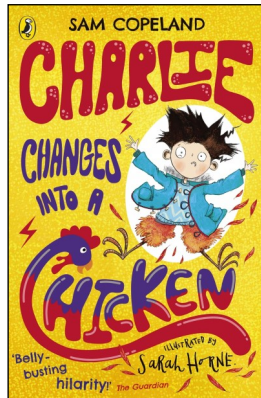

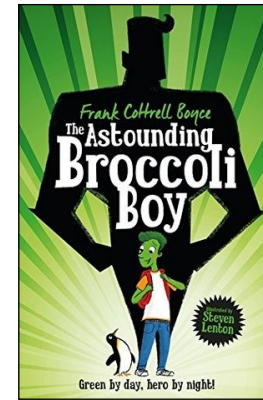

Cymbeline can't swim, so when he falls into a pool his mother suffers a breakdown. How is this linked to his father's death? And why won't anyone tell him anything?

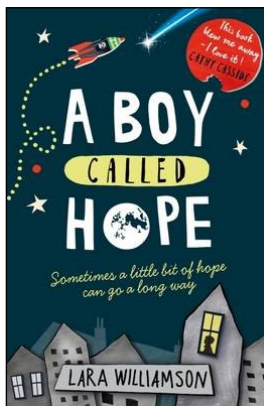

Mouse and his family are involved in a car crash on Christmas Eve. While his family struggle, Mouse is helped by his toys and imagination - but can he find his family?

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like humorous
books

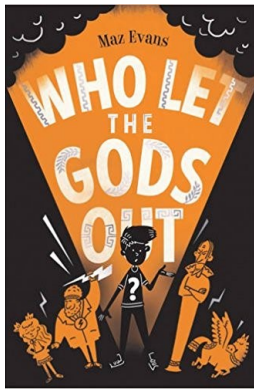

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

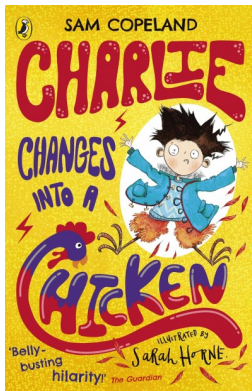

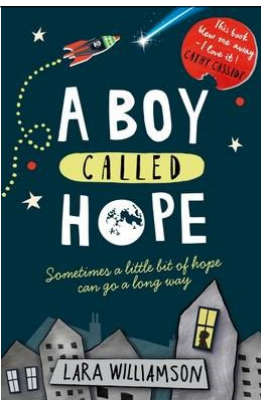

When a shooting star crashes into Elliott's barn, it starts an adventure of a lifetime as Olympian Gods try to help him and his poorly mum. Hilarious and touching.

A hilarious tale of Charlie, who unexplainably turns into various animals at the most awkward moments. Can he control his gift? Or will it be more of a curse, as he is seen changing by the school bully...

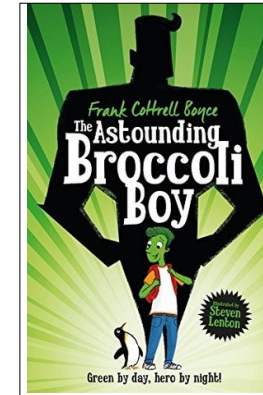

Dan Hope's dad has left home, but he thinks he can track him down. With the help of his older sister, Grace, he learns the importance of family - a warm tale of everyday life.

SIX TO READ...

...if you like humorous books

Rory Rooney falls into a river on a school trip, and is shocked when he turns green. Is this the start of his superpowers? But why has his nemesis turned green as well?

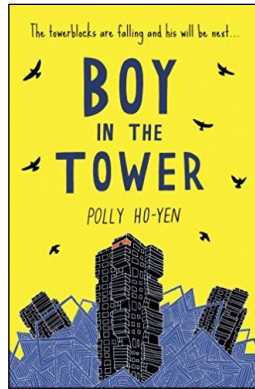

It's the end of chocolate! However, foul play is suspected by Jelly and her Grandma, and they set out to determine who is really to blame - and to stop the end of chocolate.

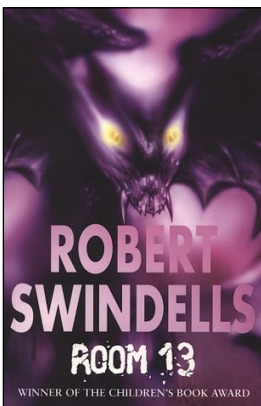

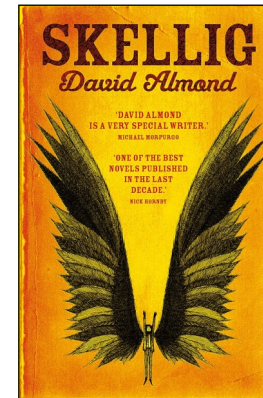

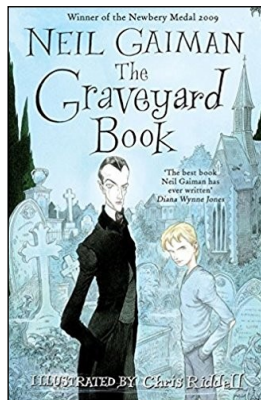

Luke goes for a wee, missing the moment an alien arrives and gives his brother Zach superpowers. When Zach goes missing, Luke has to save him in order to save the world!

SIX TO READ...

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

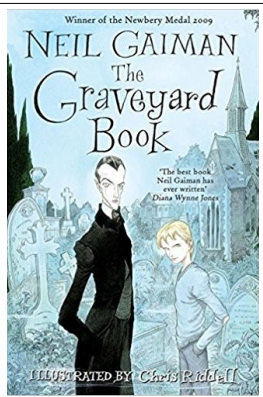

Ade lives with his mum at the top of a tower block. His mum prefers staying inside to going outdoors. But when tower blocks start to fall and menacing plants begin to grow, what will Ade do?

There was a hand in the darkness, and it held a knife.

So begins The Graveyard Book, a story that starts with Bod escaping death, growing up with ghosts and wondering about revenge.

Fliss and her class go on a school trip to Whitby, staying in a hotel where there is no room 13. But at midnight, the room next to room 12 seems to come alive - who, or what, is in there?

SIX TO READ...

...if YOU
like stories
of suspense

A year 6 residential begins with the bloodied hand of a Crater Lake employee smearing itself across the school bus. Teachers and staff start behaving strangely, and pupils too - who will escape?

When he moves house, Michael finds someone - or something - living in the shed. He lives on beer and Chinese food, but there is something different about him, something unexplained...

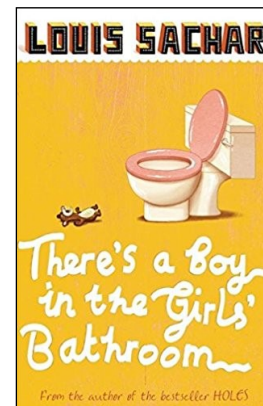

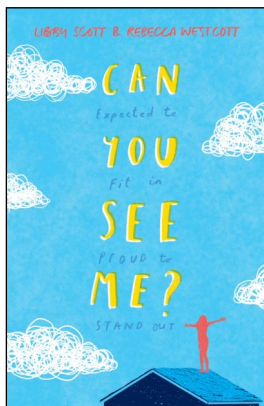

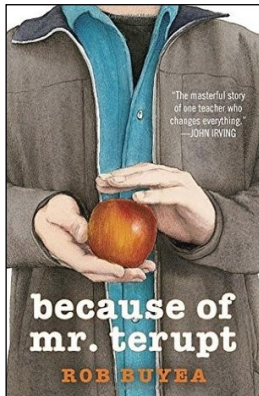

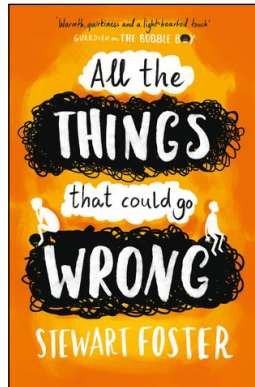

Brian's plane crashes in the Canadian wilderness, and when the pilot dies, he is left to fend for himself, armed only with a hatchet. A gripping tale of survival and mental strength.

SIX TO READ...

...if you want to
read school-
based stories

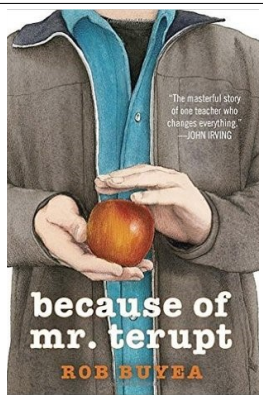

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

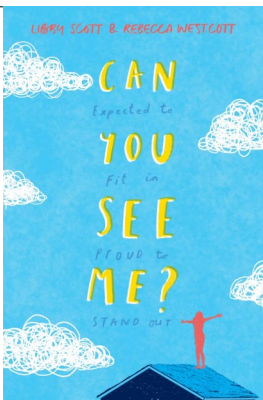

Two stories combine as Alex, who suffers with OCD, is bullied by Dan, who is struggling with his brother's sudden absence. The boys are brought together, but can they learn to put up with one another?

Mr Terupt takes over a class of children who are all very different, and don't get along. Told from 7 different perspectives, find out the impact a great teacher can have!

Follow Tally, an autistic 11-year-old, as she prepares to move in secondary school. Written alongside Libby Scott, an autistic girl, we learn lots about autism and how we can develop our own understanding.

SIX TO READ...

...if you want to read school-based stories

When the science fair comes around, a class of boys are disappointed that they won't be exploding things, or dissecting animals. Instead, they have to look after sacks of flour, learning important lessons along the way.

Suzy's best friend dies during the school holidays, leading Suzy to confront their failed friendship as she tries to deal with grief. Themes of bullying, trust and growing up create a fascinating story.

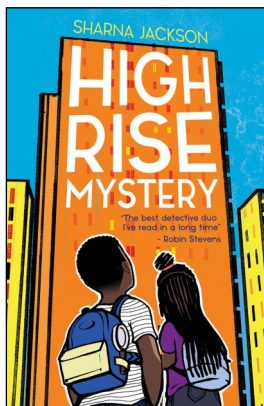

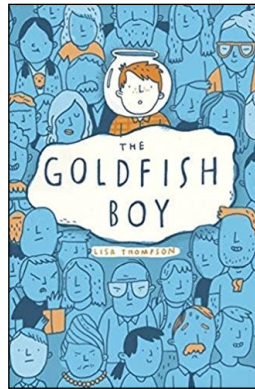

Bradley Chalkers hates school, and he feels school hates him. He can't make friends, and a counsellor tries to help him. Bradley slowly begins to learn what it means to be a true friend, but is it too late?

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like adventure
and mystery

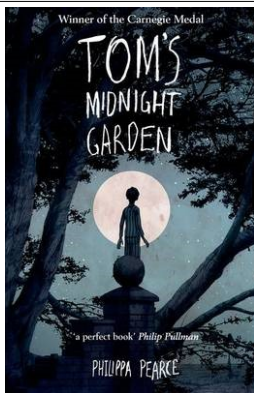

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

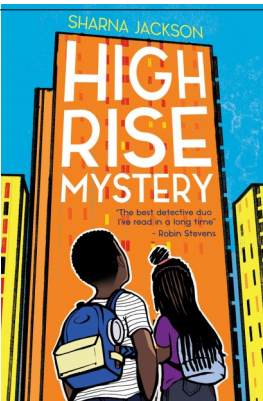

Matthew suffers with OCD, rendering him housebound. He passes the time observing his neighbours, and, when a toddler goes missing, he could be the key to solving his disappearance.

Lying awake at night, Tom hears the clock strike twelve...then thirteen. He investigates, leading him to a secret and mysterious garden that only he can enter.

When there is a murder on the Tri Estate, Nik and Norva, two sisters, think they can crack the case. Using notebooks, super-sleuthing skills, and lots of bravery, they do their best—but is it enough?

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like adventure
and mystery

Lily's life is in danger, her father is missing, and she is being hunted by silver-eyed men. She is plunged into a frightening world, aided by Malkin, a mechanical fox, and Robert, the clockmaker's son.

Ted and Kat watch their cousin Salim board the London Eye, but when he doesn't get off again they have to solve the mystery of his disappearance. A real page-turner.

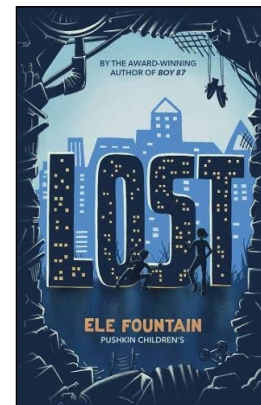

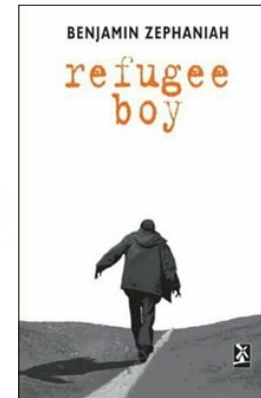

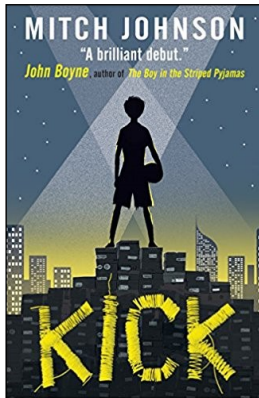

Herbie Lemon's quiet life is turned upside down when Violet Parma bursts into his Lost and Foundry. She is desperate to find out where her parents have gone - but what does that have to do with the monstrous, mythical Malamander?

SIX TO READ...

...if you want
to learn about global issues

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

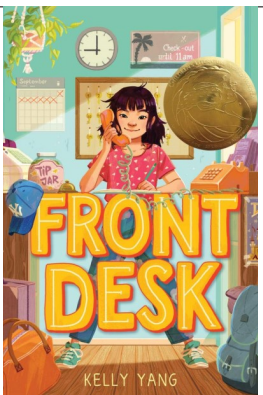

Pascal's life changes when rebels storm his village and he ends up working on a cocoa plantation. He hatches a plan to escape but knows that if he is caught it could mean death.

Budi works in Indonesia's capital, Jakarta, stitching footballs. He dreams of one day playing in the Premier League, but when a mistake leads him to owing money to a criminal, his life and dreams are at risk.

Mia's family move to the US from China, and their experience is different to what they had hoped. Read on to explore issues such as exploitation, racism and equality.

SIX TO READ...

...if you want to learn about global issues

Maya's scientist father disappears in Peru, leaving her to find him. She meets Raul, a native Peruvian, and she learns about the Amazon's natural beauty and power, as well as the truth about her father.

As war breaks out in Ethiopia, Alem's father takes him on holiday in England. However, his dad leaves him there and applies for asylum, and Alem is alone in a foreign land, lonely and lost.

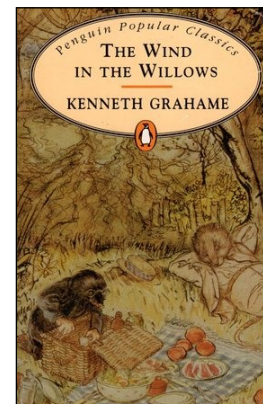

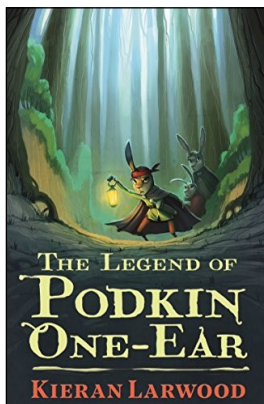

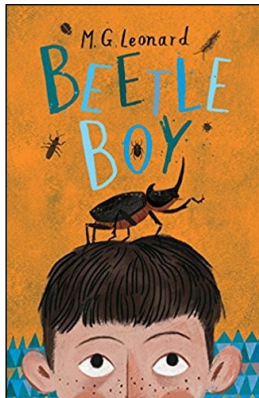

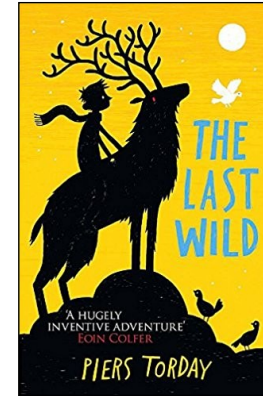

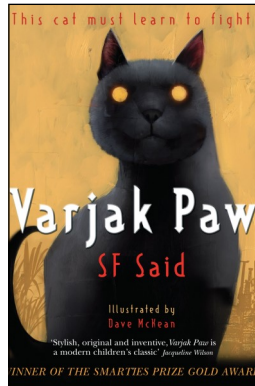

Lola lives a life of privilege, until, one day, her father goes out and doesn't return. She is forced to beg on the streets and, with her brother Amit, must quickly learn to survive among the 'street rats'.

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like stories
about animals

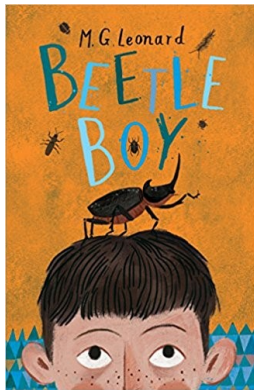

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

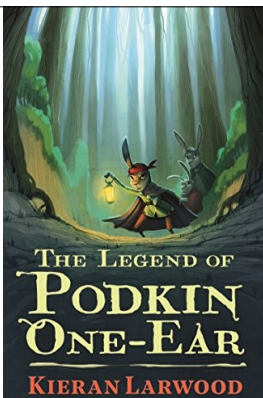

Varjak lives in an old house and has never left home—until he learns about The Way, a secret martial art for cats. He has to use his new skills to survive against dogs, gangs and the mysterious Vanishings...

Darkus has to find his missing father, and when a stag beetle crawls up his trouser leg and starts to communicate with him, he is propelled into the adventure of a lifetime.

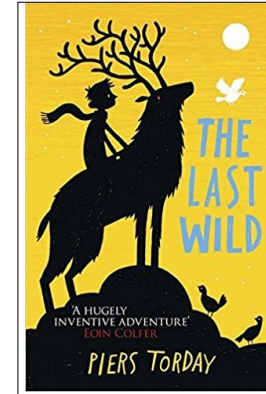

A wonderful adventure that sees Podkin's warren attacked by the Gorm, a ruthless army of mutant rabbits. Podkin must protect his family with the help of his sister Paz.

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like stories
about animals

Kester is living in quarantine, and is rudely awoken by pigeons and cockroaches. He learns he can speak to animals - and it is up to him to protect them all before it is too late.

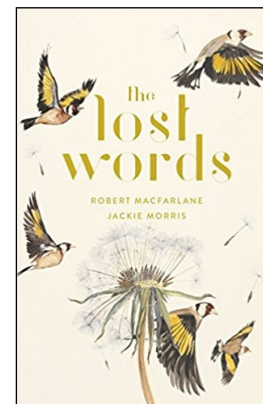

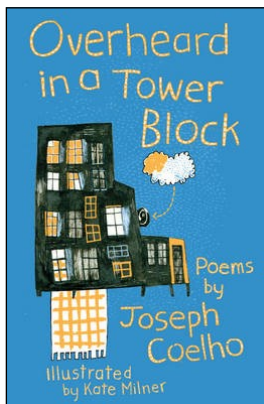

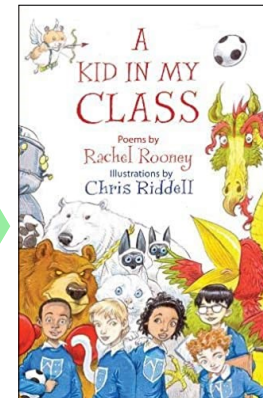

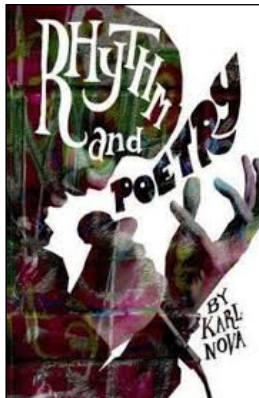

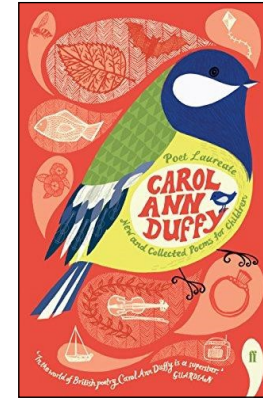

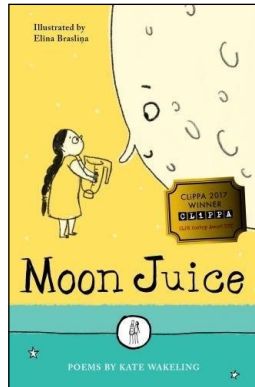

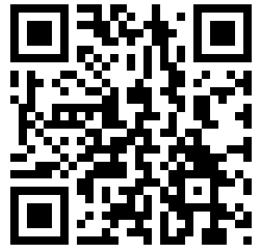

When Peter and his pet fox Pax are separated, both wish to be reunited with the other. A moving tale of love and loss as alternating chapters tell their stories.

A classic animal story, following the misadventures of Mole, Rat, Toad and Badger. They get into lots of trouble and have to learn to work together to protect what they have.

SIX TO READ...

...if you love
poetry collections

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

SIX TO READ...

A lively and imaginative range of poems, all involving wordplay and a range of poetic devices. These are begging to be performed in front of an audience!

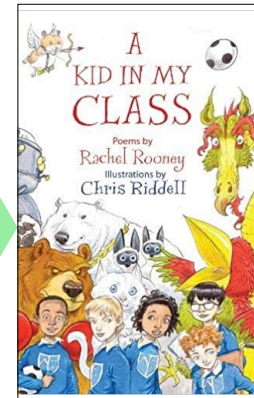

An award-winning collection of poems from Karl Nova, a hip hop artist. Rhythm and Poetry (Rap) explores his childhood and how words and poetry have become so important to him.

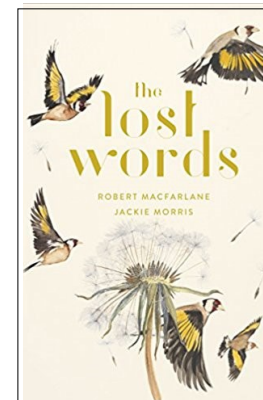

A wonderful, thought-provoking collection of poems from Joseph Coelho, using his childhood growing up in a towerblock as inspiration. Illustrated by Kate Milner.

A superb collection of a range of poetry from Carol Ann Duffy, the former children's poet laureate. Lots of different poetic styles to be explored and enjoyed.

A wonderful collection of poems about children in different classrooms. Based on Rachel Rooney's own experiences, some of these characters will be very familiar - maybe you can even spot yourself.

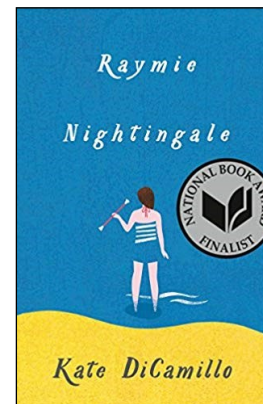

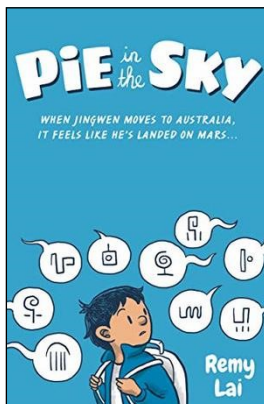

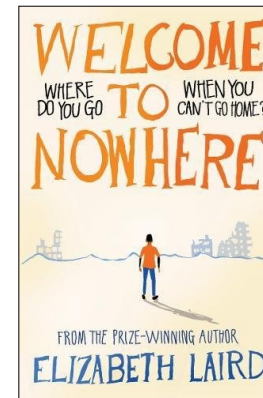

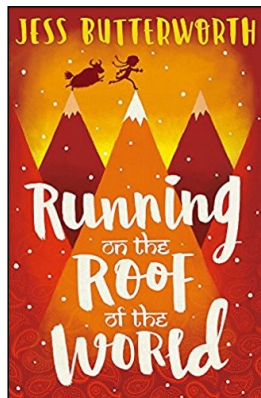

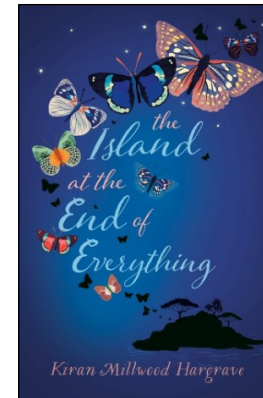

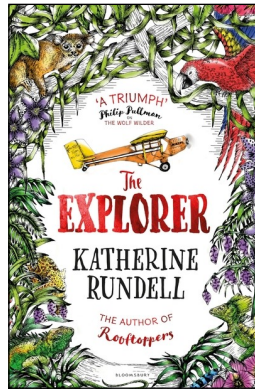

A beautifully illustrated book of 'spells', calls to nature that help us to remember plants and animals that are in danger of being forgotten. Brilliant language and acrostic poetry.

SIX TO READ...

...if you want to travel the world

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

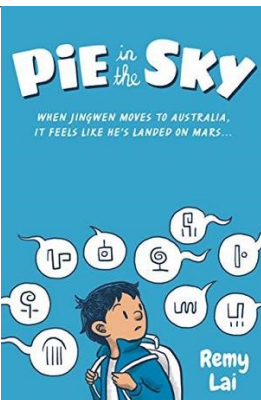

Four children are stranded in the depths of the Amazon jungle, and only have each other's wits to help them survive. That is, until they meet the explorer, a man of mystery, intrigue and a bit of a temper...

When protests go too far in Sam and Tash's Tibetan home, they make the life-changing decision to flee to neighbouring India to enlist the help of the Dalai Lama. An unforgettable adventure awaits...

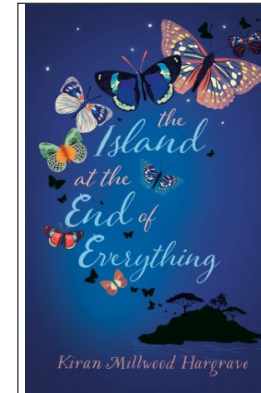

Follow Jingwen and his brother Yanghao as they move to Australia. They have learned a new language, and the boys also deal with some devastating news differently. A brilliant mix of story and graphic novel.

SIX TO READ...

...if you want to travel the world

Set in the Philippines, Ami lives on Culion Island, inhabited by lepers. The evil Mr Zamora appears to separate Ami from her family, but she is determined to make her way home...

This story follows Omar and his family in the city of Bosra, Syria. When war breaks out, they have no choice but to flee, embarking on a journey fraught with danger - but is anywhere safe?

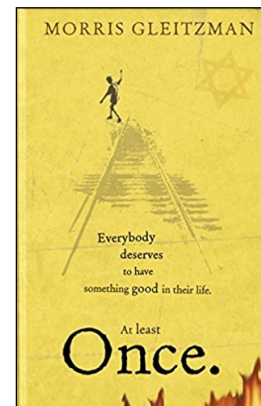

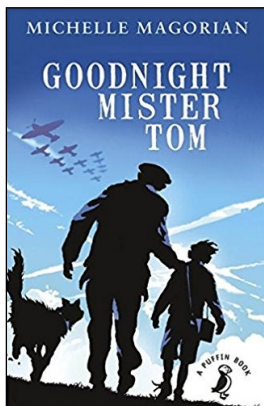

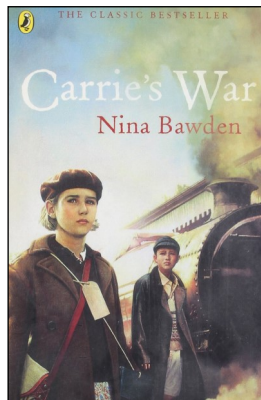

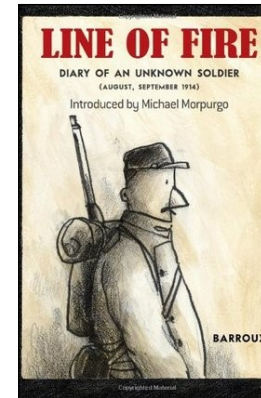

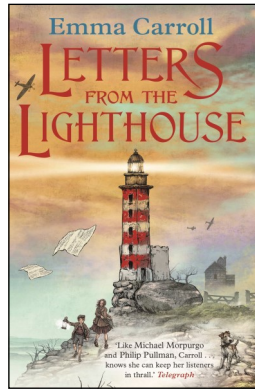

Set in the USA, Raymie is determined to bring her dad back home, and enlists the help of Louisiana and Beverly. The three girls form an unlikely friendship in a tale of hope, loneliness and loss.

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like stories
about war

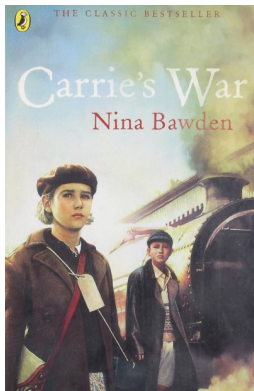

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

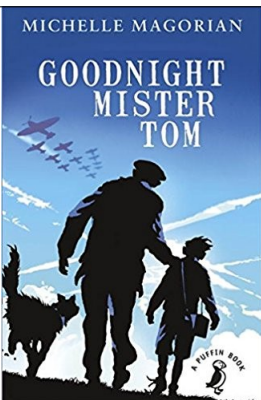

When Olive and Cliff are separated from their older sister, Sukie, they move to Devon. Here they learn of secret letters that are both mysterious and dangerous - but how are they linked to Sukie?

A story of evacuation as Nick, Carrie and Albert are sent to Wales. Mr Evans is not the kindest carer, and Carrie tries to help him...but was it the right decision?

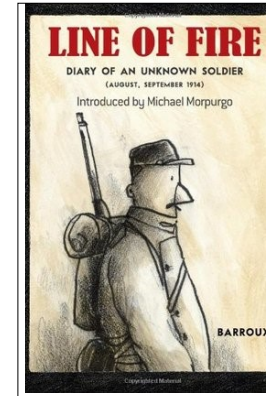

Willie is evacuated and lives with Mr Tom, where the two learn to love and get along. But when Willie is sent back to London, Mr Tom is worried about his wellbeing, and sets off to find him.

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like stories
about war

Based on a soldier's diary from WW1, the French illustrator Barroux shows the hardships and difficulties of life in the trenches.

A story of survival in London during the days of the Blitz. Bill should have been evacuated, but decides to stay in London with Julie - can the two survive the horrors of war together?

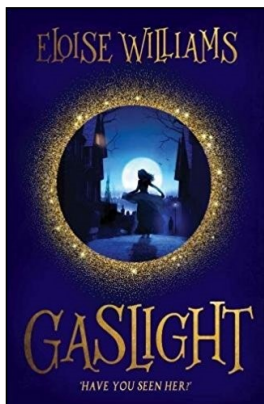

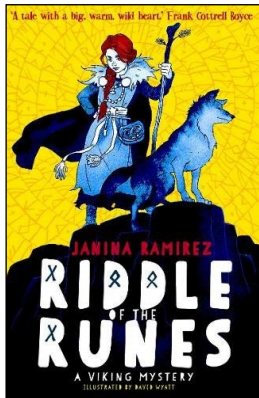

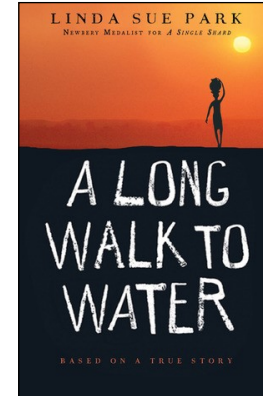

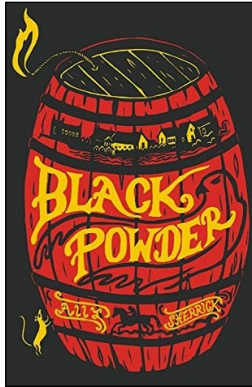

Told from the point of view of Felix, a Jewish Polish boy who doesn't understand why his parents' books are being burned. An adventure full of heart, based on real events in WWII.

SIX TO READ...

...if you enjoy
history

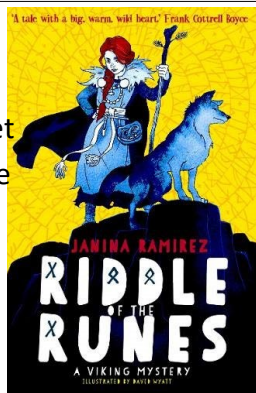

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

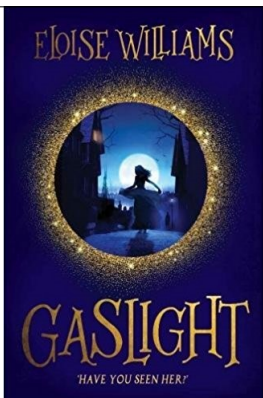

The story of the Gunpowder Plot, seen through the eyes of 12-year-old Tom. Can he trust the Falcon, a man who promises to help save his father from hanging?

A Viking tale of kidnap, mystery and treasure, as 12-year-old Alva and her pet wolf Fenrir seek to solve the mystery in her town of Kilsgard by deciphering hidden messages...but who sent them?

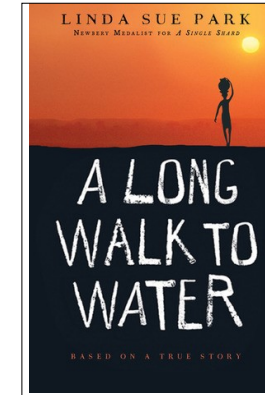

Set in Victorian-era Cardiff, Nansi is surviving life as an orphan by working for the merciless Sid. She learns Sid is keeping secrets about her past from her, but dare she confront him?

SIX TO READ...

...if you enjoy history

Based on a true story, two tales in Sudan (one from 1985 and one from 2008) show the hardship of war and survival. The stories interconnect to show the lasting impact of war.

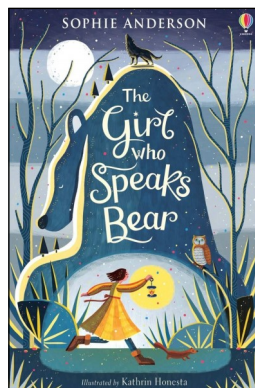

Relive the expedition of Ernest Shackleton, a man who dreamed of crossing Antarctica. Tales of bravery and desperation alongside some amazing artwork from William Grill.

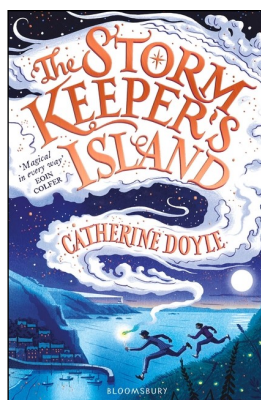

Set in London, 1922, Lilian finds a parcel from a famous Egyptologist who has just been found dead. The package holds the key to a curse, and to the mystery of a king's undiscovered tomb...

SIX TO READ...

...if you like magic

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

Follow Yanka's journey as she discovers her true past as she tries to discover who her real parents are.. She learns she can talk to animals, meets a house with chicken legs, and finds out about her true self.

Fionn sets about meeting his destiny as the keeper of the storm, a post held by his grandad. Can he tame the weather? Can he overcome his fear of water? And can he stop others taking his rightful position?

A tale of three sisters, each of whom possesses a magical object that could break the curse they are under. However, each object could also throw them deeper into trouble...

SIX TO READ...

...if you like magic

Eska escapes from the evil Ice Queen, but must convince the tribes of Erkenwald to work together in order to bring an end to her tyrannical rule. A wild adventure full of magic.

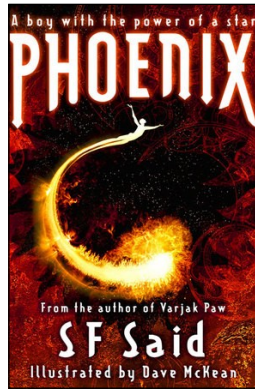

Daniel enters a shop he's never seen before - and realises there is much more to it than meets the eye. Run by a magician, Mr Silver, the shop is the envy of the evil Vindictus Sharpe. Can Daniel help to outrun danger?

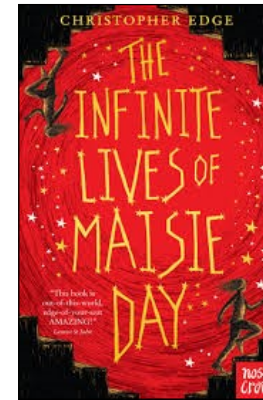

Morrigan Crow is a cursed child, and, when she dies, is swept into a new world by Jupiter, a magician. Morrigan faces lots of tests of character and learns what friends and family really mean.

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like science
fiction

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

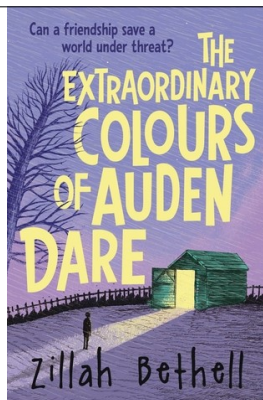

Lucky dreams the stars are singing to him - why else does his body feel so hot? When he is forced to flee his home planet, he arms himself with a weapon and some new friends, starting a quest on an epic scale.

Meg needs to find her scientist father who has mysteriously gone missing. With her little brother Charles and friend Calvin, Meg travels by tesseract, a wrinkle in space-time, on a treacherous journey that leads them into space...

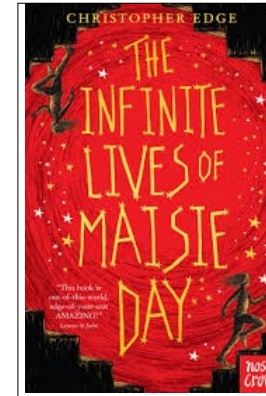

Set during a time when there is a war for water, Auden Dare moves to a new town and quickly discovers something extraordinary - but can he, and his new friend Vivi, keep it a secret for long?

SIX TO READ...

...if you
like science
fiction

Maisie Day wakes up on her birthday full of excitement - but something is wrong: her family are missing. When she steps outside, her home is surrounded by a black void. A mind-bending adventure to really get you thinking.

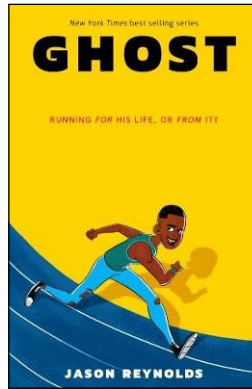

Elle is a Leapling - born on February 29th, Leaplings can time-travel. When she and her friend travel to 2048, she learns other Leaplings are disappearing, and her life is in danger...

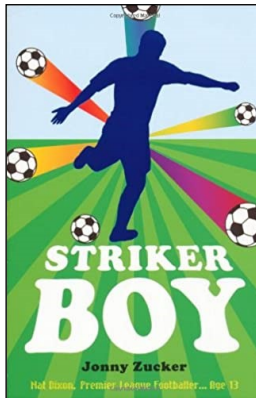

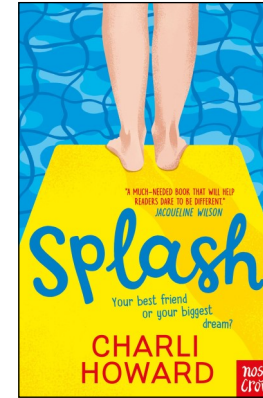

Disaster strikes the space-ship Orion, leaving 13-year-old Beth in charge. But something is wrong. She doesn't trust the AI help, there is a threat of aliens, and even her own crew is up to no good.

SIX TO READ...

...if you
love sports

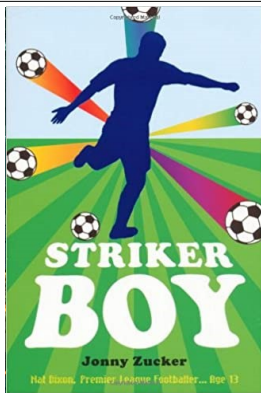

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

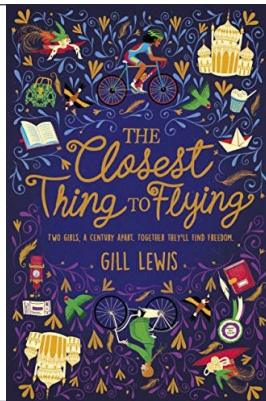

Ghost has always been running away, but, when he chances on a running session, the coach sees a natural talent. Can Ghost steer clear of trouble? And how will his difficult past affect him?

Hatton Rangers are in desperate need of inspiration, and Nat Dixon is the man to do it. The only trouble is, Nat is only 13 - can this secret be kept? And will Nat change Hatton's fortunes?

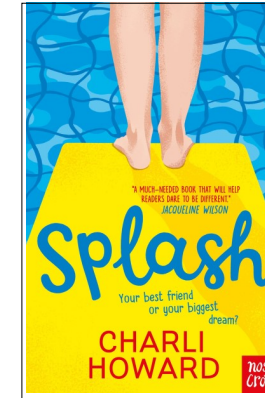

In the present day, Semira and her mother are trapped by a controlling man. Semira finds a diary from 1891, a time of women's rights & freedom found in cycling - and this gives Semira belief.

SIX TO READ...

...if you
love sports

Molly dreams of becoming an Olympic swimmer, but when the chance to compete arises, she is suddenly full of anxiety about her body. A very powerful story about believing in yourself.

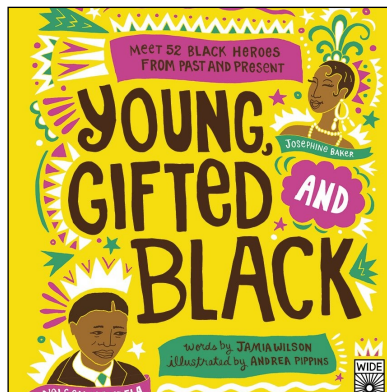

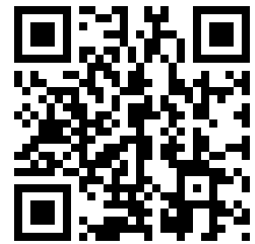

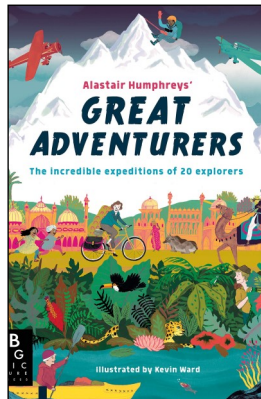

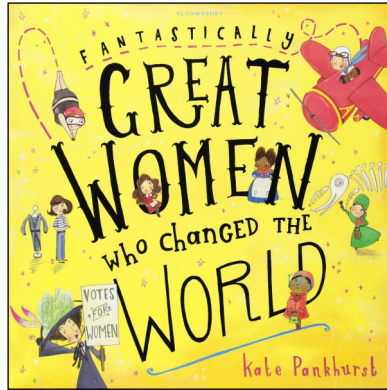

A story told by two narrators: Andi and Bernardo. Both love playing basketball, but Bernardo is set to leave the Philippines to go to England. However, his move might spell disaster for his hometown...

A history of all things sporting, from the Ancient Mayan civilisation to more modern ideas, such as the Olympics. A must for any sports fan.

SIX TO READ...

...to learn about
inspirational people

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

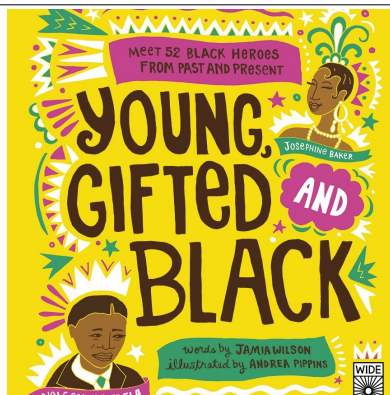

Ghost has always been running away, but, when he chances on a running session, the coach sees a natural talent.

Twenty tales of heroism, adventure, bravery and resilience. There will be some you know of, but this is largely a collection of lesser-known people whose stories are truly inspirational.

A collection of 52 inspirational black people, from politicians to musicians, and civil rights campaigners to pioneers.

SIX TO READ...

...to learn about inspirational people

A fantastic series of books that will teach you about amazing people from all walks of life.

50 famous and under-celebrated women from Bangladesh, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Nepal and more, this collection includes spies, activists, business leaders, entertainers and much more.

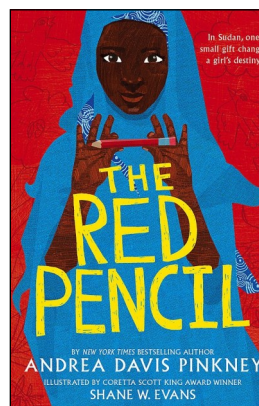

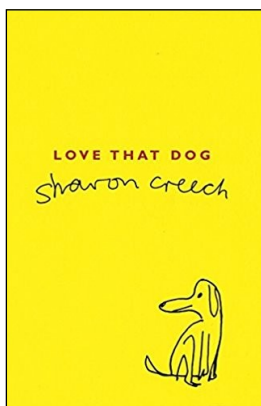

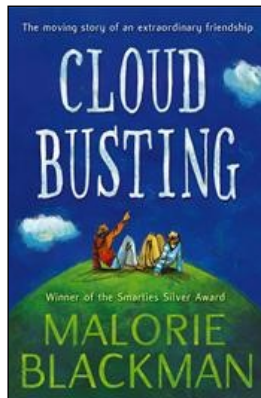

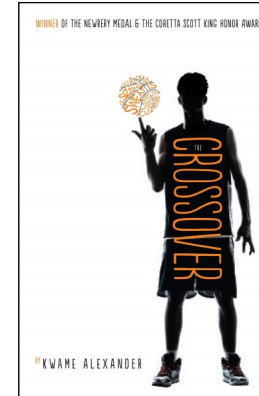

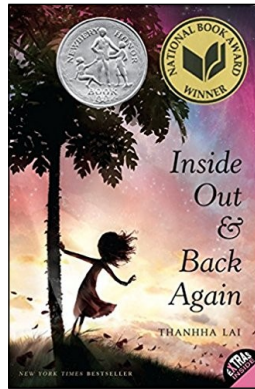

A collection of real-life stories of people who have suffered with physical or mental health, yet have not let difference stop them living.

SIX TO READ...

...if you love
stories in verse

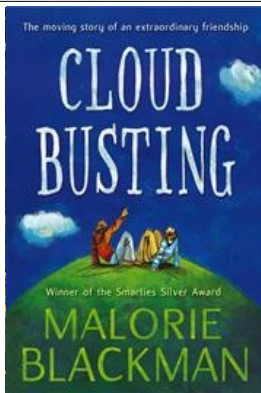

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

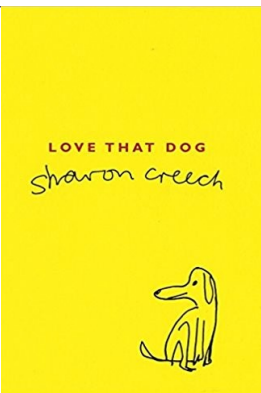

Follow Ha's journey from South Vietnam, a place ravaged by war, to the safety and blandness of Alabama, USA. Told in a poetic style, this story is moving and thoughtful.

Told through a range of poems, the story of Davey and Sam's growing friendship explores themes of trust, friendship and popularity.

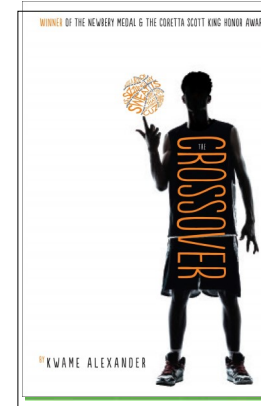

Jack hates poetry, but Miss Stretchberry, his teacher, keeps setting poetry tasks. Told through a combination of diaries and poems, follow Jack's journey of love, dogs and poetry.

SIX TO READ...

...if you love stories in verse

Josh, a talented basketball player, is twin to Jordan - together, the boys are brilliant, but when a girl comes between them, it threatens their team. A story told in free verse.

Kasiekna has arrived in England from Poland, in search of her long-lost dad. However, her school is less than welcoming, and she must learn how to deal with bullying, as well as her own complex feelings.

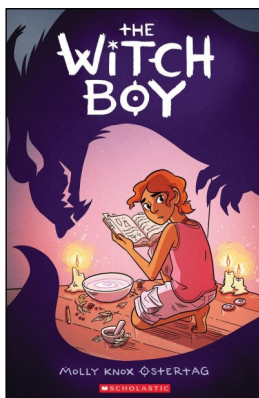

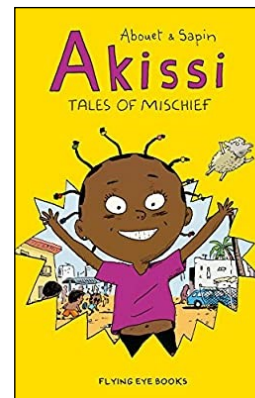

Amira lives in Sudan, a place threatened by war. She dreams of reading, learning and bettering herself, but her mother wants her to live a traditional life. Her journey begins with a red pencil...

SIX TO READ...

*...if you enjoy
graphic novels*

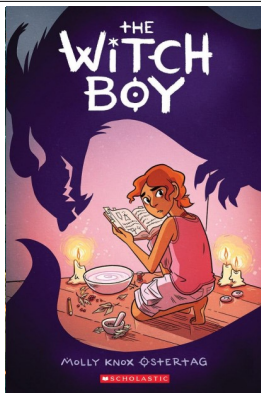

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

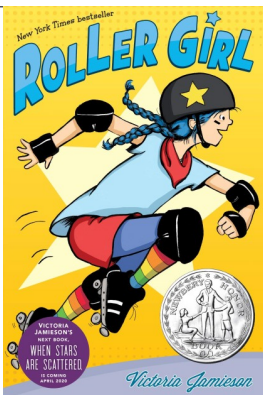

A highly imaginative story of sixteen children who, in their summer holidays, use ordinary cardboard boxes to create a fantasy world of robots, knights, monsters, and more, all while learning about themselves.

In Aster's family, all the girls become witches, and the boys shapeshifters. So what do his family say when he declares that he wants to be a witch? A great tale of identity and pursuing your dreams.

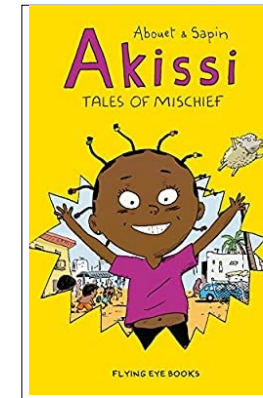

This story explores Astrid and Nicole's lifelong friendship - or what happens when they take different interests. Will their friendship survive? Or will the roller derby win?

SIX TO READ...

*...if you enjoy
graphic novels*

Lots of short, lively and hilarious tales of Akissi's life in the Ivory Coast, based on the author's (Marguerite Abouet) own experiences. There is so much humour to enjoy here.

An autobiographical tale of Cece Bell's youth, as she learned that she struggled to hear before finally turning deaf. She teaches us about true friendship and overcoming adversity.

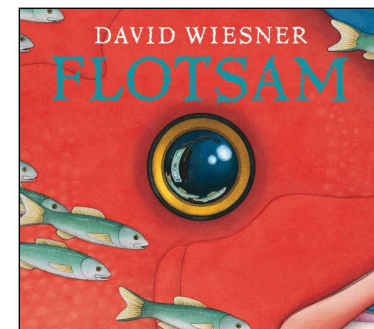

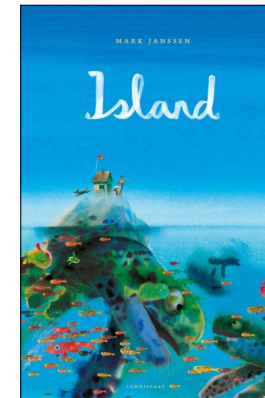

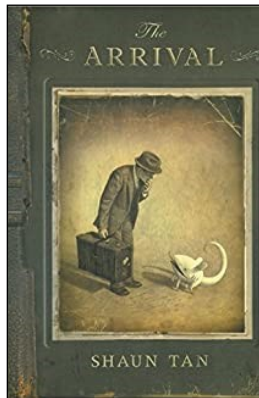

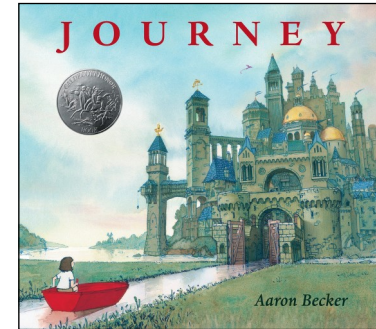

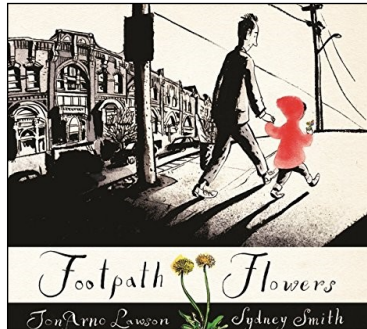

It's Mr Wolf's first day teaching at his new school, and we find out about his fears, as well as the classmates' antics. Warm and full of humour.

SIX TO READ...

*...if you want to
tell your own
stories*

SCAN THE QR CODE TO READ AN
EXTRACT OR A REVIEW.

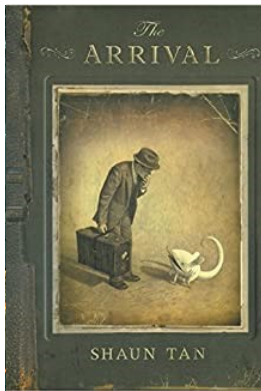

In a town full of darkness, one girl's actions change it for the better. A thoughtful story of hope for our future.

SIX TO READ...

*... if you want to
tell your own
stories*

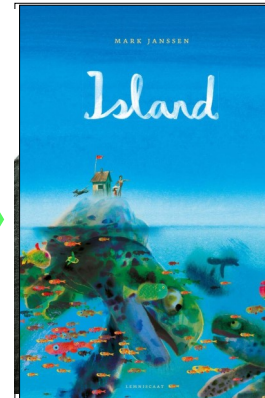

A graphic novel-style story of a man who leaves his family to start his life in a new country. We experience the confusion and uncertainty of what it must be like for people arriving in new places.

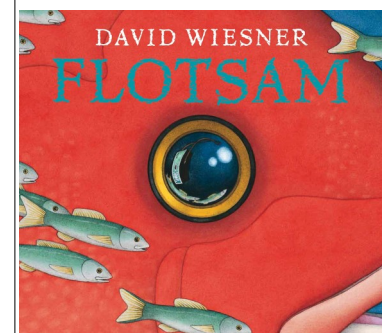

A boy is bullied at school, and his only friend is a bluebird. The bird follows the boy, eventually giving him friendship.

A girl is ignored at home, and finds solace with her red crayon, taking her on a wondrous and memorable journey.

A girl, her father and her dog get washed up on an island, where they learn to survive and respect their new environment. But all is not as it seems. Amazing, vibrant artwork make this one to remember.

A boy finds an old camera washed up on a shore, and duly inspects it. What he finds teaches him all about the wonders of the deep.