Friday 27th March 2026,

Dear Parents and Carers,

As we welcome the Easter season, I would like to take this opportunity to extend my warmest wishes to you and your families.

Easter is a special time of year that brings with it a sense of renewal, hope, and joy. It offers a wonderful opportunity to pause, reflect, and enjoy precious moments with loved ones. We hope that the holiday brings you happiness, rest, and many memorable experiences together.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support and partnership. It is greatly appreciated and plays an important role in the life of our school community.

Wishing you a peaceful and joyful Easter.

Kind regards,

Mr M Conley
Headteacher
