Dear Parents and Carers,

We are writing to make you aware of a concern that has recently come to our attention.

During conversations in school, a number of pupils have mentioned watching the television series Stranger Things. While we appreciate that families make their own decisions about media and entertainment at home, we would like to remind parents and carers that Stranger Things is rated 15 in the UK due to its themes, scenes of violence, frightening content, and language.

As a primary school, we are committed to supporting children's wellbeing and emotional development. Some content designed for older audiences can be upsetting, confusing, or inappropriate for younger children and may lead to conversations or play that are not suitable within a primary school setting.

We kindly ask all parents and carers to take an active role in monitoring and supervising the television programmes, films, online content, and streaming services their children access. Many platforms provide parental controls and age-rating guidance that can help families make informed choices about what their children watch.

We appreciate your support in helping to ensure that children are engaging with age-appropriate content both at home and at school. By working together, we can help create a safe and positive environment for all pupils.

If you would like further information about age ratings or online safety resources, please do not hesitate to contact the school.

Thank you for your continued support.

Miss K O'Connor
